Workshops to be announced

Susan Munson, a member of the OC Human Trafficking Task Force, will be speaking about the task force and what it has been doing to increase awareness of the problem right here in our own community. She will show the video that she and others put together last year and was shown this past January 11th, Human Trafficking Awareness Day, at churches across the county to educate people about the problem.

Wendy Barnes is actually a trafficking survivor herself and has been seen on Dr. Phil. She will be talking to us about her story.

Kolua Seiko, Attorney and District 9 Advocacy Committee Chair, will speak to us about what has been happening in the area of legal advocacy for women and how we can stand up for women in ways such as Denim Day, Wednesday, April 22, 2009.

Fill out, tear off and mail with check postmarked by Saturday, April 11th to:
